Prelude

(From the Marriage of Heaven and Hell) (WILLIAM BLAKE, -1790)

R INTRAH roars and shakes his fires in the burden'd air; Hungry clouds swag on the deep. Once meek and in a perilous path, The just man kept his course along The vale of death. Roses are planted where thorns grow. And on the barrfen heath Sing the honey bees.

Then the perilous path was planted: And a river, and a spring On every cliff and tomb; And on the bleached bones Red clay brought forth.

Till the villan left the paths of ease, To walk in perilous paths, and drive The just man into barren climes.

Now the sneaking serpent walks In mild humility, And the just man rages in the wilds Where lions roam.

Rintrah roars & shakes his fires in the burden'd air; Hungry clouds swag on the deep.
